Christmas 2013

A busy year

Most of you won't have heard from us for several years, as our scribe and card person (Andrew), has struggled keeping up.

So, here are the updates for 2012 and 2011.

2013? Once it has been written it will of course be published online at: www.bullwer.co.uk/xmas/xmas.html .

If we are still in touch next year, we plan to send out two newsletters, for 2014 and 2013.

This has been a busy year, but there have been no major life changes, as happened with family and work in 2011 and 2012.

Little has been achieved, few plans have come to fruition, but it has been a good year for us both.

Lez continues managing at Leicester City and Andrew continues caretaking and cleaning.

John celebrated 90 years.

Lez and Andrew

With our love and best wishes
